Golf & Music Aficionados Welcome

GOLF MISSISSIPPI

THE OAKS COURSE
AT DANCING RABBIT GOLF CLUB, CHOCTAW

Golfers come to Mississippi from around the world to enjoy our year-round golfing weather and the unsurpassed value in our golf experiences. They also choose to partake in our excellent cuisine, to experience genuine, southern hospitality, and to learn about our one-of-a-kind musical heritage. Both the Mississippi Blues Trail and Mississippi Country Music Trail plot journeys for music lovers that span the state and its history. In 2025, we celebrate the birthdays of two musical giants from Mississippi – Elvis Presley’s 90th birthday and B.B. King’s centennial. Whether you’re looking for a juke joint showcasing the blues or live new and local entertainment after your round of golf, Mississippi boasts an array of historical landmarks and trails, music festivals, and concert venues.

Robert St. John, a 7th generation Mississippian and the state’s culinary laureate said it best, when discussing the roots of so many genres of music with folks in Europe, “Mississippi really is the cradle of America’s music and the epicenter of the most influential art form of the 20th century.” He regaled these potential Mississippi tourists with a geographic, musical history lesson starting north in the Mississippi Delta, where the blues were born, east to Tupelo where Elvis Presley, the King of Rock ‘n’ Roll, was born, and then south to the hometown of Jimmie Rogers, the Father of Country Music. [quoted and paraphrased from The Commercial Dispatch, 9/25/24].

Over 140 courses dot the landscape of the Magnolia State. Many were designed by some of the most prominent names in golf – Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Jerry Pate, Tom Fazio, Davis Love III and Bob Cupp, just to name a few. This ensures that Mississippi offers something for all levels of golfers, even the pros at the PGA TOUR’s Sanderson Farms Championship in Jackson each fall.

A NOTE ABOUT THE REGIONS...

We present three color-coded geographical regions in the guide. The North Region comprises the Delta and the birthplace of the blues, gently rolling hills with stunning scenery in small towns, Mississippi’s two major college towns, and award-winning golf resorts. In the Central Region, waterways wind through a richly historic part of the state, while also boasting big-time gaming resorts and the state capitol. The South Region encompasses historic river towns, coastal casinos and golf resorts, and the sparkling waters of the Gulf of Mexico with its beautiful beaches.

A NOTE ABOUT THE LISTINGS...

All public, semi-private, military, resort and private golf courses are listed within their respective regions. Lodging/golf package listings are from participating properties. Published rates and packages are subject to change, may vary, and restrictions may apply. Call each property for the most current information. The “Golfers’ Picks” sections also provide a small sample of dining, entertainment and non-golfing options by region. Additionally, we have put together some sample itineraries on page 38 just to get you thinking about all the wonderful ways you can spend your time in Mississippi, on and off the course.

Additionally, golf packages can be customized by golf packaging companies, local hotels, and casino resorts to help maximize both budgets and enjoyment and minimize the burden on the annual golf group planner.

GOLFERS' PICKS

Join the many golfers who head to Mississippi each year to accept the challenge laid down by many of the game's top designers on the golf courses they have created. Take advantage of affordable packages and superb accommodations, enjoy the spectacular scenery and be sure to live the local life after your round of golf each day. Our 19th hole offerings are truly unique and genuinely "insta worthy."

As the Birthplace of America's Music, Mississippi's musical landscape is much like the golf scene. Exciting and varied, it reflects regional influences. The song lyrics tell our story, while the beats, rhythms and melodies reflect our diverse heritage. As previously mentioned, Mississippi has been instrumental in the birth, growth and popularity of musical genres such as blues, country and rock 'n' roll. These musical styles are truly "Mississippi-made" and are showcased on the Mississippi Blues Trail and Mississippi Country Music Trail. Plus GRAMMY Museum® Mississippi in Cleveland provides an informative journey through the music industry's history, while focusing on the continuing musical achievements of Mississippians.

As one of the largest casino destinations in the country, Mississippi offers gaming and sports betting opportunities throughout the state, from Tunica in the north to Coastal Mississippi in the south. Celebrity entertainers, gourmet dining, luxurious lodging, spas and many more amenities turn Mississippi's gaming resorts into memorable, fun-filled vacations, conventions and reunions.

Beyond the music and entertainment in Mississippi, there's unbeatable dining. The state's cuisine defies categorization. In some cases, it defies imagination. From catfish to comeback sauce, from tamales to traditional Southern sweets, from shrimp to slugburgers to sweet potatoes, Mississippi's culinary heritage has something to please every palate. The Magnolia State is home to James Beard Award-winning chefs, as well as some of the best home cooks and out-of-the-way diners anywhere.

In North Mississippi, satisfy your appetite and get entertained at both Lucky Dog Music Hall in Southaven and Ground Zero Blues Club in Clarksdale; try sophisticated Southern cuisine at Grit near Oxford; sample world-class barbecue at Clay's House of Pig in Tupelo, and enjoy the original fried dill pickle at The Hollywood Cafe in Tunica.

Central Mississippi is a foodie's haven with exciting eateries in both new and old locales in Jackson. Don't miss Walker's Drive In or the restaurant at Highball Lanes. Both are located in Jackson's Fondren district. Near the capitol, enjoy live music and Southern fare at Hal and Mal's, a local landmark and newest locale on the Mississippi Blues Trail. The region also features some of the best rooftop bars like 10 South Rooftop Bar & Grill on the Mississippi River in Vicksburg and Missy Sippy Rooftop Bar, overlooking The Refuge Golf Course at the Sheraton in Flowood. While enjoying the gaming and other entertainment at Pearl River Resort in Choctaw, plan a night at Phillip M's Steakhouse.

No visit to Coastal Mississippi is complete without a trip to Mary Mahoney's for gumbo or soft-shell crab or The Shed for 16-hour brisket and live music. Murky Waters BBQ also boasts live blues music at its four coastal locations. Plus the casinos along the Gulf of Mexico offer a great variety of culinary delights. Natchez boasts the world-famous Fat Mama's Tamales and Natchez Brewing Company and Hattiesburg is home to Robert St. John's eateries.

With so many dining options in Mississippi, we turned to golfers who have visited and enjoyed our delicious cuisine and nightly entertainment to share their favorite restaurants to steer you in the right direction. Some of their choices are listed within each region in the Golfers' Picks section, along with a list of all the casinos located in the respective region.

Food and entertainment are a big part of the draw to Mississippi. Although visitors may initially come for the great golf, they come back for the taste of our Southern cuisine, the fun of our world-class gaming and the intrigue of our deep, musical roots.

Golf Mississippi

NORTH REGION

MALLARD POINTE
AT JOHN W. KYLE STATE PARK, SARDIS

Most people don't know how hilly Mississippi is. In fact, the foothills of the Appalachians reach into the northeast corner of Mississippi, creating the highest elevations in the state. Yet, the region is unparalleled in its contribution to music – most notably as the place of origin of the blues, America's only indigenous music, and subsequently as the birthplace of Mississippi's most famous musical legend Elvis Presley, who orchestrated the explosive growth of rock 'n' roll on this side of the pond.

The Mississippi Delta is located in the North Region and contains some of the most fertile soil in the world, as evidenced by the verdant green fairways of its exciting golf courses. Although most of the golf is centered around Tunica, just south of the gaming destination you'll find the world's blues mecca. Clarksdale is home to the historic Delta Blues Museum, the Morgan Freeman-owned Ground Zero Blues Club, numerous Mississippi Blues Trail markers and the famous Crossroads. Further south, Cleveland is home to the state-of-the-art GRAMMY Museum® Mississippi, showcasing the accolades received by musical Mississippians.

Home to six casinos, Tunica offers many entertainment and gaming venues. Two truly top-notch golf courses in Tunica add another reason to pack your bags and head to the region. River Bend Links features a dunes-laden, open layout, and Tunica National boasts rolling terrain, wide fairways, generous greens and unspoiled surroundings.

Just south of Memphis, DeSoto County boasts three championship golf courses. They are Cherokee Valley, featuring wide fairways and large greens, plus 11 lakes and 78 bunkers; Timber Truss, with friendly, open fairways, but strategically placed mounds and water; and Wedgewood, situated on rolling, scenic terrain and featuring demanding water hazards.

A short distance southeast of DeSoto County is Kirkwood National Golf Club. This scenic course in Holly Springs displays dramatic changes in elevation and wooded valleys, with numerous creeks and lakes running throughout, plus fully furnished cottages offer convenient lodging on the course.

Two state parks in the region offer golf courses. Mallard Pointe at John W. Kyle State Park in Sardis was designed by renowned architect Bob Cupp. The challenging course features elevated tee shots, narrow fairways and well-protected greens. Golf villas are located right on the course. The Dogwoods Golf Course at Hugh White State Park in Grenada was ranked the fifth "best new affordable course" in the country by Golf Digest. The signature hole here is the par-5 9th hole. Perched high above the fairway with an incredible view of Grenada Lake, the tee shot is as beautiful as it is intimidating.

The charming college town of Oxford is another great spot to stay and play, boasting restaurants and boutique hotels on its historic town square and offering three golf courses. The Ole Miss Golf Course is the star here and offers updated fairway bunkers and greens, making the complex layout a truly modern course.

Mississippi's North Region vacation offerings range from great value golf and juke joint entertainment in small towns to high-energy casinos. The moderate climate, close proximity to the Midwest for those driving and nearby Memphis International Airport make it one of Mississippi's most convenient golf destinations.

Mississippi is famous for the blues. But our greens are pretty spectacular, too.

Golf Mississippi

CENTRAL REGION

The Magnolia State's Central Region consists of the capital city of Jackson, the historic river town of Vicksburg and the largest casino resort in the south in the native town of Choctaw. It is a unique blend of modern amenities and historic attractions.

The region's musical legacy is as diverse as its golf, with blues, rock 'n' roll and jazz flourishing in the area. In particular, Jackson played an important role in the development of Mississippi's musical contributions. Record companies such as Malaco pioneered the city's famous blues and soul music stretching back to the 1960s.

In this unique region, you'll also discover many culinary options, such as fine dining, casino buffets, old-fashioned drive-ins and pub fare. Off the course activities include riverboat casinos, journeys along the various musical and cultural trails and enlightening museums, such as the Mississippi Civil Rights Museum and the Museum of Mississippi History.

Some of the top players on the PGA TOUR play in the annual Sanderson Farms Championship in Jackson.

The golf layouts in Central Mississippi range from wide-open flatlands to tight, water-lined fairways – sometimes right on the same course. Professional golfers experience this each year as the metro area hosts some of the top players on the PGA TOUR at the Sanderson Farms Championship, played at The Country Club of Jackson.

The historic river town in the region, Vicksburg, has two unique courses. Vicksburg Country Club, opened in 1929, has amazing elevational changes for this region, and Clear Creek offers a traditional parkland layout. With four riverboat casinos, a national military park and waterfront dining, this town is a unique hotspot.

Following a major renovation, including new routing, greens, bunkers, tees and the widening of fairways, The Refuge Golf Course in the Jackson suburb of Flowood is now designed for golfers of all skill levels. It's located minutes from the Jackson-Evers International Airport, so a round before takeoff can be a great ending to any visit to the capital city. Managed by Troon®, the course provides a playable layout with three new holes and returning nines and features stunning views and impeccable course conditions. The property also features the new Sheraton Hotel and Conference Center, with 220 modern guest rooms, over 25,000 square feet of meeting space and several places to eat and drink, most notably the rooftop Missy Sippy bar where sunsets over downtown Jackson are spectacular.

Also in metro Jackson, Bay Pointe is well known for its excellent conditioning, indigenous landscaping and tight, challenging fairways. Patrick Farms is a semi-private facility boasting spacious, well-manicured Bermuda fairways and greens. With lots of nightlife and attractions, the Jackson area makes a great hub for a golf vacation.

An hour east of Jackson in Choctaw is Pearl River Resort. The two courses at the resort's Dancing Rabbit Golf Club, The Azaleas and The Oaks, were built on the ancestral lands of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians. Each of the 36 holes at Dancing Rabbit bears the distinctive touches of course architects Tom Fazio and Jerry Pate. Both courses receive abundant praise from course raters as they are consistently ranked in the top ten "best in state" by both Golfweek and Golf Digest.

Pearl River Resort's other amenities are two high-energy casinos with sportsbooks, a waterpark and restaurants ranging from an upscale steakhouse and Southern café to a sports bar and coffee shop. Lodging includes Silver Star Casino Hotel, Golden Moon Casino Hotel, a totally renovated Dancing Rabbit Inn behind the clubhouse, eight king suites in the clubhouse and a three-bedroom fairway house on The Azaleas course.

Along with boasting some of the most exciting and acclaimed golf courses in Mississippi, the Central Region offers many cultural outlets, live music venues and an unparalleled casino resort.

A scenic view of a golf course green and sand trap framed by two large trees, with pink azaleas in the foreground.

Mississippi's musical legacy is as diverse as its golf.

Golf Mississippi

SOUTH REGION

SHELL LANDING GOLF CLUB, GAUTIER

Mississippi's South Region is an attractive mix of award-winning, coastal golf, exciting musical entertainment, intriguing history, and stunning scenery. The historic districts of Natchez, Laurel and Hattiesburg showcase charming Victorian homes and preserved 1800s mansions. Along the Gulf of Mexico in the Biloxi/Gulfport area lies a row of glitzy casinos, exciting music venues, beachfront hotels and condos and one-of-a-kind restaurants. Golfers love the culinary treats in the region that include world-famous tamales, fresh Gulf seafood, Mississippi catfish and succulent barbecue.

Natchez is home to two intriguing courses. Beau Pré Country Club is situated on the banks of Second Creek and features a 90-foot clay bluff and rolling terrain. Natchez Golf Club at Duncan Park is a traditional-style course built in 1916 near the historic downtown, where many homes survived the Civil War. This municipal course was recently renovated in an effort to update the playing style while retaining its historic charm. The river town itself is home to an exciting casino, many bed and breakfasts in sprawling mansions, riverfront hotels and a variety of dining and nightlife.

Just east of Natchez, rolling terrain, undulating greens and breathtaking scenery are found at Quail Hollow, located in Percy Quin State Park in McComb. Quail Hollow was designed by well-known architect Arthur Hills. Golf villas providing modern amenities are conveniently located at the state park to create great value stay-and-play packages.

An hour north of the Mississippi coastline is the college town of Hattiesburg. It has become a real foodie town of late, thanks to restaurant owner and chef Robert St. John. He's become well known for his creative expressions, both in the kitchen and through the written word. His local restaurants speak for themselves. For golfers visiting the area, Timberton Golf Club is a must play. Designed by Mark McCumber, this outstanding layout plays well for all skill levels.

Finally, Coastal Mississippi has been a golfing destination for more than 100 years and is an attractive mix of award-winning golf courses, lively gaming resorts, exciting musical entertainment, one-of-a-kind restaurants, intriguing history and stunning scenery. The Biloxi/Gulfport area is home to both the state's best collection of golf courses and most luxurious casino resorts.

Highly-regarded course architect Tom Fazio designed Fallen Oak golf course. Built by MGM as an amenity solely for guests of Biloxi's Beau Rivage Resort & Casino, the course features dramatic bunkers and inviting greens, offering surprising changes in elevation for a coastal course. It underwent a major renovation in 2022 with enhancements to bunkers, bridges, cart paths and even the already luxurious clubhouse. The course is ranked No. 1 in the state by both Golf Digest and Golfweek and listed as Golfweek's second best casino course in the country behind its sister Fazio design Shadow Creek.

Jerry Pate's only coastal design in Mississippi is The Preserve, the home course of Palace Casino Resort in Biloxi. The course retains membership into the prestigious Audubon International Signature Program. It's ranked in the top ten of both Golfweek's and Golf Digest's "best in state" rankings and number 13 on Golfweek's most recent list of top U.S. casino courses. The Preserve's layout integrates the native surroundings, including cypress swamps, grass prairies and live oak groves.

energy casinos, all paired with exciting musical entertainment.

Golf Mississippi

SOUTH REGION

Grand Bear was designed by Jack Nicklaus for Harrahs Casino and is known for its strategic routing and unspoiled setting within the Desoto National Forest. Davis Love III contributed Shell Landing in Gautier, featuring diverse topography and natural waterfront beauty. Rounding out the signature designs, Mark McCumber also designed Windance Country Club on rolling terrain in Gulfport. It's the home course of The View Casino Resorts. All three of these challenging and scenic coastal courses are also ranked in the state's top ten by Golfweek.

On the western part of the coastline, The Club at Diamondhead features two distinct courses, the Pines and the Cardinal. The scenic beauty and Southern hospitality found at both courses make the taxing layouts a pleasure to play. Strategic bunkering and demanding greens highlight the layout at The Oaks Golf Club in Pass Christian. Finally, The Bridges Golf Club at Hollywood Casino in Bay St. Louis is Mississippi's only Arnold Palmer Signature golf course.

The most historic course in the region is Gulf Hills, which opened in 1927 with a recent re-design into an updated 9-hole course along the beautiful Fort Bayou. The adjacent Gulf Hills Hotel & Resort has hosted the likes of Elvis Presley and Al Capone, and it is the only waterfront hotel in the quaint, artsy town of Ocean Springs.

With moderate annual temperatures, a variety of lodging options, world-class gaming, historical attractions, exciting restaurants and musical outlets to enliven the senses, the region is unlike any other golf destination in the country. With non-stop air service from many cities into the Gulfport/Biloxi International Airport, South Mississippi is more accessible than ever.

Moderate temperatures, world-class gaming, historical attractions, exciting musical outlets and the beautiful Gulf of Mexico create the most unique golf destination in the country.

NATURE MEETS UNRIVALED GOLF

Designed by legendary course architect, Tom Fazio, Fallen Oak raises the bar for luxury resort golf. The sister golf course to MGM Resorts' Shadow Creek offers 510 acres that will test even the most seasoned golfers. With the DeSoto National Forest as a backdrop, our 18-hole, par-72 championship layout unfolds in a majestic, almost cinematic, invitation and deserves a spot on your must-play list.
